Celebrate!

This last column that I write for the Koinonia is indeed a celebration of my ministry here at Faith UMC with all of you. It has been the best seven years of my life – and I say that without reservation and in all honesty.

In spite of the adversity under which I was appointed, you welcomed me; you took the time to get to know me; you accepted me; you loved me; and you helped guide me as we went into some uncharted waters of mission. I have learned much from all of you. The greatest gift is that with you, the people of Faith, I mostly had to just “get out of the way.” You know how to do ministry and you do it well.

Some of us have had a few differences along the way, but I believe that, in the end, we dealt with those differences in a loving way, learning and practicing grace. Our respect for each other deepened and we have worked well together.

It has been my privilege to share your lives and your faith journeys with you. We have been through many joys: births of grandchildren; the rites of baptisms and confirmation and quinceañeras; observances of birthdays and anniversaries. We have also shared in the grief of deaths – but more importantly in the celebration of those lives that we loved.

Now is the time for transition once again. I am turning the spiritual guidance of Faith over to Jody Topping. Some of you have met her.

She will have fresh ideas and a LOT more energy that I have had of late. You are a wonderful faith community – loving, accepting and forgiving. I trust that you will embrace Jody in the same way that you did me.

I will miss you, but know that you will all be in my heart.

Much love, many blessings, and Shalom, Pastor Judy

Joshua's Journey

"Offline"

On the last Sunday of May I talked in church about our journey and how that changes over a period of time. I mentioned briefly in the sermon about my own journey to Strength for the Journey at Pine Canyon Camp (SFTJ), and I think there's a lot to be said on how that trip and our journeys intermingle.

The trip to SFTJ for us in Phoenix is quite a long trip. I had to drive down to Tucson and get on a church van to go the rest of the way to Pine Canyon. Although I was (thankfully) not the driver, the trip from Wilcox (the closest city) to the camp was an uneven, unpaved road with many twists and turns. There were some very sharp corners and areas where I am certain my own car would not make it. Then, when I arrived at camp, I was very surprised to find out that there was no cell service and very minimal wi-fi service available through a satellite in the camp manager's house.

So here I was, having gone on a long ride with lots of hills to an environment without cell service, not even able to call my house to let everyone know I would be unavailable for a few days. However, what I learned was I was where I needed to be at that moment in that time of my soon-to-be-finished semester.

I spent 3 days with some amazing people, hiking, doing crafts, leading people in worship while we sang campfire songs. I read two non-seminarian books, took a nap, and spent time in community and with God.

On my way home from Tucson, I realized that perhaps that is where God needed me to be – away from it all for a few days so I could catch my breath, and be prepared to finish my semester with enough energy to finish my classes.

That experience is very similar to the "back of the boat" experience that we find in Mark

the corner pew:

The many faces of worship

We all have our preferred ways of worshipping God and of building our sacred spaces in which to feel God's presence. Sometimes we need to explore new and different ways of doing that. As Faith UMC moves forward, my prayer is that you will embrace the things that will be introduced. Welcome surprises; look beneath the surface of the obvious; seek Christ in the unusual. Moving along the roads of our faith journeys is all about sharing stories; learning new things; trusting in God; allowing the Holy Spirit to work in and through and among each and every and all of us in whatever way that might be.

IMAGINE! wonderful things and allow the Holy Spirit to IGNITE! you.

Namaste, Pastor Judy

4:35-41. After teaching and serving, Jesus feels the need to go take a nap in the back of the boat that Jesus and the disciples are on. Even in the midst of a storm, Jesus is able to rest.

Perhaps we need to find more of those "back of the boat" experiences where we disconnect from life's daily challenges to rest for a moment, gather our thoughts, and be prepared for what is next in the journey of our lives.

As you vacation or spend time with your family during this summer, may you find your own "back of the boat" experiences so that you can get closer in your walk with God and closer with your family and friends.

In God's Graces, Joshua

A Word from Your New Pastor...

Greetings members and friends at Faith UMC! It is my pleasure to introduce myself as your new pastor beginning July 1, 2014. My husband David and I are very excited to be a part of the Faith family, and are looking forward to meeting all of you in the months ahead.

When Pastor Judy suggested I write an article for you newsletter, I thought to myself "how in the world can I share all I want to share in one newsletter?" Then I realized I don't have to share it all...this time. But I do want to share some of the highlights about us and our ministry.

I graduated from California State University, Fullerton (CSUF) with a Bachelor's Degree in Music (emphasis in performance) in 1981. While at CSUF, I met David and we were married on December 29, 1979. Yes, this year we will celebrate 35 years of marriage! David also graduated from CSUF in 1981 with a BA in Music Education. After graduation, we spent a year living in Germany, and then returned to the US where he ultimately took a job teaching choral music in Porterville, CA. We stayed in Porterville for 5 years, and then moved to Arizona with our two young children in tow. When we moved to Tempe, Ryan was almost 4 and Erika was just 6 months old. Today, they are almost 30 and 26...my how time flies!!

We moved to Arizona so David could continue his education at Arizona State University. The plan was to be here 3 years, but we ultimately made Tempe, AZ our home for the next 26 years. While David was at ASU, I also went back to school part time and received a Masters in Human Resource Administration from Ottawa University, Phoenix Campus. It was during that time I took a position at the City of Mesa, where I worked in HR Administration and ultimately became the Employee Benefits Administrator. After more than 20 years with the City, I retired in October 2010 so I could pursue God's call for my life: to become a pastor and serve a church.

I felt God's call to go into ministry long before I first declared my intent to become a pastor. But we all know how these things work: I spent many years denying God's call for my life until finally I gave in and declared my candidacy in 2007. I started seminary in 2008 and graduated with my Masters of Divinity from Iliff School of Theology in June, 2010. While enrolled in seminary and after my retirement from the City, I was offered a pastoral internship at Gold Canyon UMC where I've been serving ever since, and in January of this year, the Board of Ordained Ministry approved my application for Commissioning at this year's Annual Conference. As of this writing, I still need to be voted on by the Clergy Session at Annual Conference before I can be commissioned as a provisional elder, but if all goes as expected, the vote will be in my favor, I will be commissioned as a provisional elder, and I will be your pastor on July 1!

David and I bring with us many years of ministry in the United Methodist Church. We were members at Los Arcos UMC in Scottsdale for 18 years, where David also served as music director, and I was Director of Sidewalk Ministries. In addition, the experiences I've had at Gold Canyon as part of the pastoral and congregational care staff have been invaluable. Rev. Fred Steinberg, my ministry mentor and supervising pastor, taught me a lot about how to be an effective pastor and leader, and I know the things I learned from him will be put to good use at Faith UMC.

There's so much more to tell...but that will have to wait for another article! In the meantime, please keep us in your prayers as we look for a home near the church and make the move from the East Valley to the West side of town. God bless you all during the next month! We look forward to meeting you all in July!!

Jody

You Won't Want to Miss!

Sunday, June 29th, will be a busy day as we celebrate Pastor Judy's ministry with us and bid her a happy retirement. Already plans include special music during the morning service by Dennis, Claudia, Erik and Giselle Marsollier and a farewell dinner and program Sunday evening at 5:00 p.m.

The evening fete will include a sit-down dinner with a choice of pork or chicken entrée. Everyone is encouraged to attend. There will be no charge, but people will need to RSVP for planning purposes. Further details on the evening celebration will be announced in Sunday bulletins, or you may contact SPRC Chair Maria Franco (mariaf525@aol.com or 602-510-6381).

TRUSTEE REPORT

Good Day

Well summer has arrived and as usual it's hot! But this year we have 95% of the campus running cool. It's been a very long and hard road to secure our property but we are closing in on completion.

This month we had the florescent lighting replaced throughout the entire campus. It is estimated that we will save close to 40% on our lighting usage. Motion detection switches have also been added to select locations.

We will be fine tuning the system so feel free to add your suggestions as they are always welcome.

The courtyard is now in the process of upgrades. We will be working on the lawn as well as the pine tree. We hope that with the support of Paula Wolf and Gary Drown we can beautify the area.

There will also be additional lighting installed in the courtyard and painting will begin this month. The canopy is in dire need of repairs and we will be evaluating the costs and extent of work needed.

The community garden continues to produce produce which has found its way to local food banks. We are already reaping the benefits of this mission.

Thanks to all those who showed up for the work day. Your efforts are greatly appreciated.

Thanks

Jerry Dotto, Chair, Board of Trustees

RAMBLINGS

FROM THE EDITOR

My goodness, here we are almost halfway through 2014! Things we thought of as "far off" are suddenly here. The thermometer on the wall registers higher and higher temperatures. Our winter residents have departed for cooler climes. Students are "free" for a few weeks. Pools are warm and popular. And Faith looks toward its change in leadership.

Yep. It's here. The end of this month we must bid adieu to Pastor Judy and welcome Pastor Jody. (Seems like a forecast for a smooth transition when all we have to do is change one letter!) You will see in this month's issue an article of introduction by Jody as well as an invitation to her commissioning which will take place on Saturday evening during Annual Conference.

We welcome - and rely on - contributions from all of you. That is what makes the Koinonia interesting and relevant. In this issue you will notice several pictures and articles. Thanks to all of you that sent them to me - and to those that gave me permission to "lift" some photos off Facebook postings. The report from Janet in Ireland came just too late to put into last month's issue, but it is still interesting and timely .

FAITH'S FREE BOOK PROGRAM
OPENS IN JUNE

Help Needed!

Faith's Free Book Program will again be distributing books each Friday in June from 9:00 a.m. to noon. Free Books for Children was a program started at Faith four years ago and has been delightful in every way. Originally the thought was to get the books into the hands of children but almost immediately we became aware of the need and desire to expand including all family members.

We, Pat Evans, Terry Goekler and I, finish this summer hoping and praying someone young or not so young may choose to take over. We can guarantee you a rich experience providing books to families. The first year an 8 year old came in and announced "we don't have one book in our home" and her dad stated that as a slight exaggeration. They returned the next year. If you might be interested in taking over we'd love to have you join us this summer, Friday mornings in June. We can always use the help and you may have suggestions for changes. Contact one of us or the church office.

GRANDMA'S LUNCH BUNCH

Come enjoy lunch with a group of ladies. We meet once a month on the 3rd Thursday at 11:30 to have a time of food and fellowship.

May's group had Italian fare at Cucina-Tagliani. There were eight ladies deciding just what to choose on their large choice menu. The majority of us had take out boxes!!

It was decided to have lunch at Los Compadres Mexican Food (2350 W Northern Ave) for June. The date is Thursday, June 19, at 11:30. Come and join in on the food and fun.

When you give on Peace With Justice Sunday, your gift makes possible our critical kingdom work in the world. Because you give:

- Methodists spearhead a peace ministry uniting Arizona border communities
- United Methodists in Liberia are being equipped to implement the denomination's Social Principles to address social-justice issue
- Pennsylvania students are educating their community about sex-trafficking at home and abroad

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Celebrate the birthday of the Church!

The gift of the Holy Spirit was presented to the faithful in the form of fire.
We can pray that that fire, metaphorically, will IGNITE us today.

In honor of the occasion, make sure to wear clothing that is bright

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

(Excerpted from The Desert Connection)

The 2014 Desert Southwest Annual Conference will take place at the Glendale Renaissance Hotel and Spa in Glendale, Arizona June 26-29, 2014. "Ignite" is this year's annual conference theme: Igniting a passion for Christ through evangelism, igniting a passion for Christ through worship, igniting a passion for Christ through leadership development, and igniting a passion for Christ through service. All areas are building on last year's "Imagine..." theme, in which Bishop Hoshibata assigned the work of imagining new ways of doing ministry, imagining new ways of reaching out to new people, and looking at existing ministries and programs without fear of ending them if they are not fruitful endeavors. Last year we imagined what could be done and this year the Bishop hopes to ignite a passion for Christ in our leadership and that will burn within them igniting a passion for Christ in others .

Individuals are encouraged to build teams by asking their friends and family to join them in the race or compete against them in the race.

Either way offers plenty of opportunity for fun and making new friends within and outside of the church as well as playing a major part in saving lives by ending malaria. Registration is $20 and 100% of the money raised goes directly to Imagine No Malaria in which every $10 raised saves a life. Details about how to register as a runner or volunteer are available at www.imagine5k.org.

The Annual Conference Mission Project is an innovative twist on the simple sock drive. Why socks? Socks are one of the least donated but most needed necessities for individuals that are living in shelters or on the streets. Clean, dry feet are a major contributor to good health. To find out more about the mission project visit <http://desertsouthwestconference.org/ac-mission-project>.

THE PROPHET IN THE CHOIR

If this offends your sensibilities, it cannot be helped. There are some things in life that just will not work under the umbrella of "both and".

Christians must be Bold in Christ.

One can believe in the teachings of Jesus Christ which include feeding the hungry, making water available to the thirsty, clothing the naked, and visiting the sick and those incarcerated, or one can vote for representatives who create or support legislation which opposes those teachings, or obstruct legislation whose goal is to accomplish those ends, but one cannot do both.

One can believe in the teachings of Jesus Christ which include loving one another as Jesus has loved us and loving one's neighbor as oneself, or one can be a bigot, but one cannot do both. By the way, for professed Christians, neighbors include people who are Jews, Muslims, Atheists, Buddhists, Hindus, First Nations, Blacks, Whites, Hispanics, Asians, Women, Men, Gay, Lesbians, Bisexual, Transgendered, Homeless, Addicts, Mentally Ill, Physically Ill and Disabled.

One can believe in the teachings of Jesus Christ which include being welcoming, or one can close oneself off, but one cannot do both.

One can believe in the teachings of Jesus Christ, or one can vote for those who ignore the needs of those who have been damaged while in service, but one cannot do both.

One can believe in the teaching of Jesus Christ, or one can vote for those who make it possible for the rich to grow richer at the expense of everyone else, but one cannot do both.

One can be in relationship with Jesus Christ and show the fruits of the Spirit, or one can admire those who profit from the miseries which Jesus taught that we are to help heal, but one cannot do both.

Howard J. Moses , Chaplain

THANK YOU!

A big thank you to all of you who sent cards and prayers at the time of my sisters' death. They were very much appreciated. It was a great comfort to know others cared.

Carol (and John) Getting

SOCKS ROCK!

The Annual Conference Mission Project / challenge continues this month. Please remember to bring your new sock donations for the homeless to the church no later than June 22nd so they can be taken to annual conference! Look for the blue basket in the narthex and/or Koinonia room. If you prefer to make a cash or check donation the monies will be used to purchase socks. Checks should be made out to the Desert Southwest Conference with "Socks-Central West District" in the memo line. Socks collected by our Central West District will be distributed to the Justa Center in Phoenix, The Haven Clothing Bank in Jerome and the Crossroads Shelter in Yuma. Let's all join in to really "sock it to 'm" this summer!

seniors deserve a place to call home

FUNDRAISER

Come and honor the service and sacrifice of our veterans, while benefiting Justa Center! On Thursday, June 12, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m., Park Wood Assisted Living (14581 Parkwood Drive, Surprise, AZ) will host a reception to help veterans, who comprise almost 50 percent of Justa Center's population.

Tickets are $20 per person in advance (at www.justacenter.org) or $25 at the door - veterans and children under 12 are free.

Enjoy a spaghetti dinner, silent auction, raffles, dancing, and more, with all proceeds benefiting veterans who seek help at Justa Center.

We look forward to seeing you there!

THE CASE OF THE VANISHING VASES

Missing from the Koinonia storage room are several small glass flower vases. If anyone had borrowed them or know their whereabouts please return

Summer Service Made Simple

Many people would like to make more of a difference to others... yet volunteering may seem hard to squeeze in. Ask yourself: Could I shop for Mary, an upbeat 90 year old, while I get my own groceries? OR - Could I visit Mike, a veteran with disabilities, on my way home from work or with my children on the weekend?

Duet, our congregation's partner in service, makes it easy to serve! See who needs your help by looking at Duet's real-time wait list (duetaz.org/index.php/giving/map). Attend just one 2½ hour volunteer orientation to begin. The next session is set for Saturday, June 14 from 9:00 – 11:30 AM at Orangewood Presbyterian Church, 7321 N. 10th Street, Phoenix, 85020. Please call 602-274-5022 or visit www.duetaz.org to register. Thank you.

Help for Grandparents Raising Children

Duet can help pay to send the grandchild you are raising to activities such as a local day camp or classes. This will give you time for yourself while enriching them. Also this summer: a special retreat for grandparents raising grandchildren for an "under-the-glass" visit to Biosphere 2 (near Tucson) from June 20 – June 22 for just $30. Guardianship clinics, support groups, and classes are also available throughout the Valley, along with fun "grandfamily" activities. Learn more at 602-274-5022 or www.duetaz.org.

Reflections & Observations

INTERSECTIONS

As many who have shared the road with me unfortunately know, I am not a patient person—especially when I am in the car hurrying to get somewhere. The other day I was sitting at a light when it turned green and I started to go, only to realize there was a car blocking the intersection. At first I was irritated: the driver had misjudged the light on the yellow and had gotten out into the intersection, only to have it turn red before he could make his turn. Now he sat, indecisively, wondering if he should stay put or risk stepping on the gas to turn left before the through traffic started to move, at risk of being hit. I caught a glimpse of his face, panicked and having that “oh heavens, what did I just do?” look that we’ve all experienced. Thanks to the courtesy of the other drivers, who stopped on their green to allow him to clear the intersection, he was able to complete his turn on the red light. No one honked, and everyone seemed to forgive him for his mistake.

For some reason, this moment stuck with me as I continued my drive into work, and it got me thinking. How often in our lives do we misjudge a situation, get ahead of ourselves, and make a move that we quickly regret? There are so many intersections in our lives where we must make decisions. Some are simple, others difficult; some require immediate action, and others we plain just get wrong. Those are the ones we regret, and find ourselves seeking forgiveness for our bad choices.

We can’t always expect to make the right choice at the right time. But how rewarding is it when out of the blue we find that we can rely on the charity of others to get us out of a jam? It is even more rewarding to remember that, no matter how big or small, God forgives us for all of our bad choices. I find myself thankful to one errant commuter for driving home an important reminder of the grace that we experience in big and small ways every day.

EASTER IN IRELAND

Our Easter service was delivered with an Irish brogue in Maynooth, Co. Kildare, at the Presbyterian Community Church, and a lovely service it was. It was within walking distance from our hotel. The attendance number was about the same as our church, with many babies and youngsters, plus a few older folk. Service was followed by homemade pies and cakes and tea in the conference room of a nearby shopping center. One lady was Catholic, but attending with her son. She had been a nurse and along with 17 other nurses signed up in Ireland to serve in an Ohio hospital upon their graduation in the 1930's. She said they invaded Ohio, and had a wonderful experience there.

Our week was filled with sunshine, and we were amazed. It usually rains most times. The hotel is situated near the center of this small town, and we walked to dinner at several nice restaurants. We took three days after work to travel to Northern Ireland to see Giant's Causeway stones which are shaped liked hexagons and pentagons, and many groups are very tall. It is quite a walk down to the shore to see it, and we were glad there was a shuttle to return us topside.

One other thing to do is walk across a rope bridge to an old salmon fishing island cottage. It involved another long walk downhill, and a long walk back uphill. Climbing stone steps was an exhausting experience. The views, however, were spectacular, and you could see the Scottish coast about 14 miles across the sea.

Our stay in the north was at a bed and breakfast with hosts who were very friendly and helpful. Breakfast was Full Irish if desired, or cereal, and several dinner suggestions from our hosts made great destinations in the lovely little town of Bushmills. It was only four hours' drive north from where TJ works.
