June-July 2015

From the PASTOR

Are you ready for summer vacation? I have to say, I'm ready for the vacation part, but not the summer part. The longer I live in the Phoenix area, the more I dislike the summer months...and every year it seems like the summer gets longer and longer. I should have known what we were in for when we moved here in 1988, in the middle of July, and the temperature at 3:30 in the morning was 103 degrees!! The only good thing about being in Phoenix in the middle of the summer is that many of the people who live here during the winter go someplace else...which means the lines at the supermarket are a little shorter, and the traffic on the freeway is a little lighter! But other than that, the only good thing about summer in Phoenix is...well, nothing!

This summer I will be spending quite a bit of time away...although not all of it will be personal time. In June, I will be serving yet again as Dean for Senior High Camp up on Mingus Mountain. I can feel those cooler days and downright chilly nights already!! After that, I'll be attending Annual Conference in the middle of June. Then, in July, after about 5 days of vacation, I will be traveling to London, England to take part in a 10-day Wesley Pilgrimage sponsored by the UMC Discipleship Ministries. And after that, in August, I'll be taking at least a week of vacation to visit with my sisters and spend some time resting and recharging my batteries.

While I'm away from my pastoral responsibilities here at Faith, Joshua Warner, who is a candidate for ministry with our Annual Conference, and Pastor Deborah Schauer, pastor at Shepherd of the Valley UMC will be available for any pastoral care needs. Please check with the office if you are in need of pastoral care and Mike will assist you with the name and number of the best person to call. They will, of course, keep me informed of any issues that need my attention, and I will most likely be available by phone or email in the event of an emergency.

In addition, while I'm away, you will be blessed with some excellent preaching by both Joshua and my good friend, Suzanne Jacobson Cherry. Joshua, as you know, is a candidate for ministry in our conference. He recently returned to a more active role at Faith following an internship at Shepherd of the Valley UMC. Suzanne and I began our seminary educations at the same time, and spent many hours together commuting back and forth between here and Claremont School of Theology in Southern California. She has a Masters of Divinity Degree from Claremont, and is moving toward ordination in UMC in the future. I know you will appreciate both of their messages while I'm away from worship.

Know that even though I'm away from the church, and may from time to time be worshiping elsewhere, you are always in my heart, in my thoughts, and in my prayers. God bless and have an enjoyable summer (at least the beginning of it!).

Pastor Jody

Thinking theologically:

"Many people were coming and going, so there was no time to eat. He said to the apostles, "Come by yourselves to a secluded place and rest for a while. (Mark 6:31)"

I don't know about you, but sometimes I just get so tired. Some would say it's because I work too hard...others would say it's because I'm not sleeping well enough, and both of them would be right. I tend to be a bit of a workaholic, especially when there's a lot of work to be done. And when it's hot outside, I don't sleep very well, even when the air conditioning is on. What's more, for the last 30 years, ever since my children were born, even the slightest noise wakes me up at night...and once I'm awake, my brain starts working, thinking about all the things that need to get done, and then there's no hope of me going back to sleep! It's times like that when I wish someone would just knock me over the head with something and render me unconscious so I could get the rest I need!

Jesus understood the value of rest. In chapter 6 of Mark's gospel, we read that Jesus traveled around to various villages, teaching the people about the kingdom of God. He even sends the disciples out, two by two, giving them authority to teach and do miracles, and when they all come back together, he knew that they needed a break. So he says to them, "Come, rest awhile." Take a break. Take a load off. It's time to go someplace secluded, alone. So you can rest, recharge, and be ready for what happens next.

As your pastor, I love each and every one of you. I hope you know that, because it's true. But I also need time alone, time to rest, recharge, and be ready for what happens next. And summer is a good time to do that, since it's the time of year so many people take time to "get away." So I will also be taking some time off this summer. David and I have made plans to be away at the beginning of July, and in August I will be traveling to Tennessee to spend some time with my two sisters. Both of these will be times when I will rest and relax...so I can be ready for the fall and all of the wonderful opportunities that season brings.

I hope you will also be taking time to get away, whether you spend time with family or just go by yourself to a quiet place. But whatever you do, know that you're in good company, because even Jesus took time to rest.

Food Drive

WE'RE STACKING UP THE TUNA

AND RACKING UP THE BEANS!

Yup! We're doing great with our collection of tuna fish and beans - this year's Annual Conference mission project, "Drive Out Hunger." At last report we had amassed 130 "units." That's 130 cans of Tuna and 130 cans/packages of beans, folks! Looks like we're well on our way to our super-goal of 200 "units" to be delivered to Desert Mission Food Bank this month!

June 15th is the absolute positive deadline to get our count into conference then post our total with a photo of all those nutritious items, so be sure to get your items in as soon as possible.

Parables from the Backside:
Stories with a Twist

The parables of Jesus are beloved stories that guide us as we strive to lead a Christian life. And for some of us they've become so familiar that their meanings no longer impress us because they've become so familiar. In this sermon series, we'll explore the parables from a new perspective: through the eyes of one of the minor or unsympathetic characters. Our goal is not to detract from the traditional meanings of these beloved stories, but to add new meaning for our everyday lives. Join us as we take a new and different look at the parables of Jesus – a look from the backside .

Faith at the Movies

Just like last summer, we will offer a sermon series straight out of the theaters... well, sort of! Our summer movie series will feature several different movies, both old and new. The movies will be shown in the Koinonia Room on Friday nights, followed on Sunday by a sermon based on the movie that was shown. The first movie will be shown on July 31 with its accompanying sermon on August 2. The series will continue through Labor Day.

The movies to be shown in this series are yet to be determined. If there's a movie you would like us to consider, please email Pastor Jody at jody.topping@gmail.com.

ZIPPERS ZIP IT UP FOR THE SUMMER

ANNUAL CONFERENCE JUNE 17-21

On June 17-21, Pastor Jody and our Lay Delegate, Joshua Warner, will attend Annual Conference at the Renaissance Hotel in Phoenix. They will join with other pastors and lay delegates to hear important reports and make vital decisions related to our Conference and our Denomination. This will be an important Annual Conference because in addition to the above, delegates will be deciding which clergy and lay people will be selected to represent our Conference at General Conference, which will be held in the spring of 2016 in Portland, Oregon.

Imagine!

Ignite!

Inspire!

This year's Annual Conference theme is "Inspire." It follows the themes of "Imagine" (in 2013) and "Ignite" (in 2014). During this Conference, our Bishop and Conference Leaders will offer information and ideas that will inspire us to move forward toward our ultimate goal as a denomination of making disciples for the transformation of the world.

On May 21, Pastor Jody attended the pre-conference briefing during which various individuals from our Annual Conference office highlighted some of the things they will be doing. One new event will include a Ministry Fair that we've been told will include a variety of activities as well as information booths that delegates will be able to visit in order to gather new information and ideas. Delegates will also be participating in "Holy Huddles" – opportunities to share ideas with one another so we can all be inspired to be more actively involved in the spread of the gospel in our communities and throughout the world.

In the weeks that follow Annual Conference, Pastor Jody and Joshua will report on what happened and what was decided during Annual Conference. Please keep them both in your prayers as they participate in this important event .

PASTOR JODY TO PARTICIPATE IN WESLEY PILGRIMAGE

For 10 days during the month of July, your pastor will be participating in the Wesley Pilgrimage in and around London, England. I was one of several church leaders, both lay and clergy, who received scholarships from the UMC Discipleship Ministries (formerly the General Board of Discipleship) that cover the majority of the trip. The Pilgrimage itself is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to walk in the footsteps of our founder, John Wesley, experience some of the places where he and his brother, Charles were in ministry, and hear some marvelous speakers share vital information about the beginning of the Methodist movement.

The Pilgrimage will begin in Salisbury, home to a vital Methodist congregation that was once served by Francis Asbury. Asbury was appointed by John Wesley as one of the first two bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States. After Salisbury, we will explore Epworth (the Wesley's birthplace), Oxford (where John & Charles led the Holy Club), Bristol (home of the Methodist societies and class meeting), and London (where John built the center of British Methodism).

Since this is a continuing education event there is quite a bit of required reading, which I've been working through in my spare time. While I'm there, I'll be attending lectures and other teaching sessions, as well as meeting with a small group of other pilgrims. As a lifelong Methodist, I'm excited about learning more about this denomination that I've come to love, and look forward to sharing what I've learned with all of you when I return.

A pilgrimage is a journey to a sacred place as an act of religious devotion. Each day will begin and end with scriptural devotions, prayer, and receiving of the sacrament of Holy Communion. The goal of this pilgrimage is to help us grow as faithful leaders for the United Methodist Church and its mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. This is a rare opportunity that I'm so grateful to be a part of. I will be leaving on July 11 and will return July 23. I would greatly appreciate your thoughts and prayers while I'm traveling during this time of learning, study, and prayer.

Blessings, Pastor Jody

STRENGTH FOR THE JOURNEY - A GREAT EXPERIENCE

I am excited to share with you the great experience that our campers and staff had at the annual Strength For The Journey (SFTJ) retreat for people living with HIV/AIDS held between May 14th and 17th at Mingus Mountain. Earlier this year, we were hoping to have between 6 and 10 campers as we were in the process of creating the next chapter of this retreat with some changes in staff and programming. In the end, we had 38 campers and 12 staff including one of the largest groups of women campers in recent years thanks in part to one of our staff members who brought several women from Powersource Tucson, an empowerment program for women living with HIV/AIDS.

During the retreat, there were several great workshops that were held including journaling and yoga, nutrition, and photography. We also had crafts and tie-dye activities, along with our annual affirmation bag project which is our opportunity as a SFTJ community to affirm each other with cards of encouragement which truly give our staff and campers strength along the journey, giving them a piece of the love that is experienced in the short four-day retreat as they return home.

I also had the opportunity to spend some quality time with several campers ministering to them, hearing their stories on what brings them to the camp and identifying ways that our SFTJ community can support them in their life's journey. I learned through their stories their courage and success along with some painful memories that they are still working to get past. I learned that many of our campers have some significant histories and that HIV/AIDS is not their only challenge. They suffer from substance addictions, unemployment, underemployment, and homelessness. Some of our campers are undocumented and as a result have challenges getting and taking the medications necessary to fight their HIV infection.

Another great outcome of the retreat was not only ensuring that we will have return campers next year, but as a result of their experiences, some of our campers have chosen to return to church after several years of feeling ostracized from their faith because of their diagnosis.

All in all, I and the staff believe that this year's SFTJ retreat was a success on many levels. From my own perspective, this part of my journey has affirmed for me my own calling. These campers have taught me what it means to be invited into a space where strangers are not easily trusted and to have the opportunity to truly be the hands and feet of Christ to others so that they can experience the goodness of God's grace.

In God's Graces, Joshua

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP – UPDATE

We are so excited to share that Faith United Methodist Church has a new UMYF group. It started at the end of April and includes 12 young people, some of whom are actively involved in our church and others who are not. As a group they brainstormed about ways they can be of service to our church and the community, fun activities they would like to participate in, and learning opportunities that will help them grow in their faith. Please keep these young people in your prayers as we work together and hopefully grow as a group.

Deadline for the August issue of the Koinonia will be Friday, July 24th. Please submit all articles, information, and photos to Esther Frank (estherfrank@cox.net).

In Review

SUNDAYS IN MAY

Fishing was the theme for the first four Sundays in May as Pastor Jody called us to remember Jesus called us to be "Fishers of Men" as we share the love of Christ with others.

MAY 10 - MOTHER'S DAY

Mother's day greeted worshipers with a lovely altar and carnations for each of the ladies. A special Coffee Chat was served after the service.

MAY 16 - SIDEWALK SUNDAY SCHOOL

Wrapping up a good year - the Sidewalk Ministry held a wet and wonderful end with a "Water Day" in the courtyard. See separate article for more pictures.

MAY 24 - PENTECOST

Red, orange and yellow clothing were the order of the day as we celebrated Pentecost and the coming of the Holy Spirit to the disciples. The new paraments created by Carolyn MacAlpine are a beautiful complement to the season.

MAY 31 - FAREWELL GINNIE!

We bid farewell to Ginnie Hakes this Sunday. Ginnie, our talented - and patient - choir director for the past year and a half, has taken a full time teaching job so will be unable to continue working at Faith. We wish her the best!

Dear Members and Friends of the Desert Southwest Conference...

(An open letter on Bishop Bob's Blog)

Grace and peace to you in the name and spirit of Jesus Christ!

Many organizations are experiencing the challenges of the changing social environment in which we live. Shifting dynamics of demographics and economics create distinctly different challenges for us in the United Methodist Church and the Desert Southwest Conference as well.

These societal changes are evident as we look at the patterns of worship attendance, church mission participation (in committees, UMW, UMM, youth groups, Bible studies, and other small groups), congregation finances, maintenance of buildings and other property, and many other areas of church life. Clearly, we are seeing that we cannot continue doing things the way we have been. Change is in the air.

In order to help us navigate through some of the dynamic changes that are taking place in our Desert Southwest Conference, I have invited a small group of persons to meet with me to discuss prayerfully some of the ways in which our Conference might best meet the challenges of the present. This small group is the Missional Stewardship Task Group. My hope is that this group will reflect prayerfully on the challenges that our congregations face and will consider ways that we might change that is focused on fulfilling our mission.

Members of the Task Group are: Anthony Tang, Barbara Davis Hines, Dave McPherson, Jerry McGuire, Jonathan Arnpriester, Kathie Barnes, Mary Bullis, Randy Bowman and Sharon Ragland. They offer a wide range of expertise and gifts, but they all possess a love for Jesus Christ, a strong commitment to the church, and a willingness to dedicate time and energy to the task to which I have invited them.

These persons have been invited "to engage in honest reflection in order to steer our annual conference toward increased growth and vitality while maintaining a sharpened focus on our ministry as we align our resources with our mission and our strategic direction." Let me share some of what I am expecting:

To engage in honest reflection. Our honesty is a gift to each other, to the church, and to God. This Task Group has been asked to prayerfully reflect and to come to the table with open minds, but with a willingness to be honest about our thoughts and feelings about very critical matters related to our Conference and its future.

To steer our annual conference toward increased growth and vitality. We will be learning what our current reality is as a Conference. What does it mean to live in a geographic area where the economy is slowly rebounding, and where the communities we live in are changing dramatically while the populations in our pews are aging? Does our Conference support and encourage growth? Or are we willing to simply wait for decline to take us over until the last person "turns off the lights" in our beautiful sanctuaries?

To maintain a sharpened focus on our ministry. In our conversations, we want to discuss the way we order ourselves as a Conference. Do the structures that are in place best utilize our laity and clergy for mission and ministry? Or are we simply putting names on a slate of officers and committee members without real attention to the passion and the interests and the talents of the individuals or the purpose of the committees and task groups?

To align our resources with our mission and strategic direction. We want to ask ourselves how to best insure that decisions about resources are directly connected to the mission of The United Methodist Church and the Strategic Direction of our Conference. How, for example, might we best utilize our financial resources to promote the making of disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world? And how would we best use our resources to empower leaders who create vital congregation? We need to create a culture where decisions related to the use of resources are foundationally about MISSION and about GOD, more than about institutional preservation.

We will be discussing a wide range of topics, and we are guided by a book written by Bishop Robert Schnase, entitled "Remember the Future." The Task Group is not called to make any decisions for the Conference, but rather, to serve as a guiding, advisory group for me. Out of the synergy of our conversations may come some recommendations that may be shared with the Conference for possible implementation through channels of decision making that are already in place.

I ask that you please hold this group in prayer, with the hope that God's guidance will lead us. As always, I invite you to share your thoughts, your questions, your concerns, your prayers with me.

In Christ,

Robert T. Hoshibata

50th ANNIVERSARY BOOKLET

Our 50th Anniversary Booklet is taking longer than expected to complete, but we know it will be worth the wait! Pastor Jody has spent many hours looking for tidbits of information from Faith's 50 year history in past newsletters and other historical documents, which will make this booklet more unique. We know you are anxious to receive your very own copy of the booklet...we'll keep you posted as it is produced and completed.

FAMILY PROMISE WRAPS UP A REWARDING WEEK AT FAITH

Faith recently finished another week of Family Promise.

This time we had a small group...only 3 families. (5 parents and 4 children.) That meant that the week was quieter than usual; but it doesn't mean that it was any less work! Forty-two different people volunteered over 327 hours of their time! That is very impressive! And I am excited that we had some new helpers this time around. The youth from Crossroads provided a dinner for us, and we had 4 new people act as overnight hosts. So hats off to everyone!

Our Family Promise week started on Mother's Day, and LaVonna had fixed gift bags for all of the Moms...a little act of kindness that the Moms really appreciated. Thank you LaVonna.

And there were so many others of you who shared acts of kindness with our guests this week.:

- Carol and all of you helpers who provide food for the families
- and all of you who wash dishes and clean up
- all of you overnights who give up a good night's sleep so our guests can have a place to sleep
- All of you who play games and read stories to the children
- and all of you who listen to, and share with the parents
- and those of you who provide clean laundry for them
- and those who donate money to support the program

All of these small acts add up to a great gift of love we share with our guests...and they thank you!...and I thank you!

Jane Kriege
